SPAGHETTI SQUASH BOLOGNESE (SERVES 4)

- 1 medium spaghetti squash
- 2 Tablespoons extra virgin olive oil
- ½ cup onion, diced
- ½ cup carrots, diced
- ½ cup celery, diced
- 1½ pound ground turkey
- 1 28-ounce can crushed tomatoes
- 1 8-ounce can tomato sauce
- 1 teaspoon basil
- 1 teaspoon oregano
- Freshly ground pepper, to taste
- Parmesan cheese (optional)

Preheat oven to 400 °F.

Cut spaghetti squash in half lengthwise, scoop out the seeds, and place cut-side down on a baking sheet lightly coated with 1 Tablespoon of the olive oil. Pierce the skin several times with a fork.

Put the spaghetti squash in the oven and bake for 30 minutes.

In a large saucepan, sauté the onion, carrots, and celery in the remaining tablespoon of oil. Cook until tender. Remove from pan and set aside.

In the same pan, brown the turkey. Add the vegetable mixture back to the pan. Add the crushed tomatoes, tomato sauce, and spices.

Cover and simmer on medium low for 20 minutes.

When the spaghetti squash is done and cool enough to handle, scrape out the strands with a fork into a large bowl (you may want to hold the squash using an oven mitt while you do this).

Serve the spaghetti squash topped with the Bolognese sauce and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese, if desired.

TIP: Serve with spinach sautéed with garlic and olive oil.

TURKEY MEATBALLS MARINARA (SERVES 4)

24 oz. ground turkey (not too lean)

2 eggs, lightly beaten

4 tablespoons purchased basil pesto (in a jar)

6 Tablespoons almond meal

Freshly ground black pepper, to taste

1 28-ounce jar of your favorite low fat tomato sauce

4 tablespoons freshly grated Parmesan cheese (optional)

In a large bowl, combine turkey, egg, and pesto.

Add 5 tablespoons of almond meal and mix well. If mixture seems too moist, add the remaining tablespoon. Season with pepper.

Moisten hands with cold water and roll turkey mixture into golf ball sized meatballs. Pour tomato sauce into a 10-inch skillet with a lid and bring to a simmer over medium heat.

In a nonstick pan, sear meatballs briefly to brown the surface and lock in moisture. Gently transfer meatballs into hot sauce.

Cover and cook gently for 30 minutes, shaking the pan halfway through to roll over the meatballs.

Transfer meatballs to a plate, and sprinkle with Parmesan cheese, if desired.

TIP: Serve with sautéed Swiss chard with olive oil.
